

Our Love Diary

A few pages of us - funny moments, soft memories, and the partnership I never want to lose.

The first page

That selfie still feels like a reminder: I look happiest when I am making something for you.

Birthday glow

Your smile near that cake made the whole room feel softer.

Candle queen

The candles were bright, but you were the moment everyone should have noticed.

Black polo day

I was trying to look cool, but honestly I only look complete when you are around.

Strong pose

I may act strong, but with you my heart becomes very simple and soft.

Food date

Every normal meal becomes a date when you are sitting across from me.

Ice cream proof

That ice cream was sweet, but you still won without trying.

Shy smile

This look is dangerous; it can end any argument in two seconds.

Alpaca memory

Even the alpacas had main character energy, but you still stole the scene.

Us together

My favourite kind of picture will always be the one where we are in the same frame.

Road trip queen

Car, mountains, blue sky, and you - that day felt like a small movie made for us.

Mountain passenger

The view was huge, but my eyes still wanted to find you first.

VR baby

Even if you enter another world, I would still come looking for you there.

Bench teasing

I want a lifetime of small moments where I can annoy you and still hold you close.

Peace sign

You look peaceful here, and somehow you become my peace too.

Waterfall pause

The waterfall was loud, but my heart was quietly saying your name.

Beautiful innings

You are the innings I want to play slowly, honestly, and till the last over.

Snow smile

Cold mountains, warm smile, and one memory I will keep replaying.

Lake calm

You beside the lake looked like the kind of scene I never want to skip.

Forever page

Our next partnership will be with you - no last over, no retirement, only us.
